Re: 5 GCA §23112 Non-Employee Travel Justification Statement

Subj: 2025 Guam Taiwan Roadshow

Håfa Adai:

Pursuant to 5 GCA §23112, the Guam Visitors Bureau (“the Bureau”) submits this justification statement for travel related to the 2025 Guam Taiwan Roadshow in three (3) key cities: Taichung, Taipei, and Taoyuan.

From May 17, 2025 to May 24, 2025, the following individual(s) may travel on behalf of the Bureau to Taiwan to participate in the 2025 Guam Taiwan Roadshow.

Chairman Morinaga’s presence underscores the importance of the event and signals strong executive commitment. By engaging directly with stakeholders, addressing key concerns, and highlighting GVB’s strengths and plans, Chairman Morinaga will help to elevate the initiatives during the roadshow.

The cultural performers play a vital role in promoting Guam’s rich indigenous heritage on an international stage. Their presence highlights the island’s unique cultural identity, showcasing traditional music, dance, and storytelling that connect the past to the present. By engaging with audiences in Taiwan, these performers help foster mutual understanding and cultural exchange, strengthening diplomatic and economic ties between Guam and Taiwan.
